

What is Inclusive Heathenry?

you may have run into folks that say, "heathenry is the province of northern european descendants." that is the song of the racist, of the white supremacist. . .

that is not what we believe. as freyja norling said, "when the gods call you, they don't care what color you are." you are welcome. . no matter your race, your gender, or your gender identity.

you. are. welcome.

Awaken The North is a diverse organization that not only builds and forms small communities but also offers help to those seeking specific guidance, from help finding kindreds in their area, to learning of the Old Ways, to growing in their walks of faith and knowledge of the Gods, and beyond.
